$3000 Scholarships for Students in Water Resources-Related Fields

The Association of California Water Agencies (ACWA) will award a minimum of two $3,000 scholarships this spring to qualified students in water resources-related fields. Water resources-related majors include, but are not limited to, environmental studies, biology, earth sciences, engineering, conservation and resource management, landscape architecture, irrigation science, and ecology.

Eligible students must be California residents attending selected California colleges full time as a junior or senior during the 2009-2010 academic year.

To obtain an application and guidelines for the ACWA Scholarship Program, please access ACWA’s Web site at www.acwa.com/news_info/scholarships/. Information is also available by calling ACWA at (916) 441-4545.

Application must be postmarked no later than April 1, 2009.
